

Wick R. Chambers offers help to lawyers who have questions about how to exercise professional judgment consistent with the Rules of Professional Conduct and other law. He has 13 years of experience giving telephone support to lawyers who have questions about their ethical obligations, has written numerous opinions on the application of the Rules of Professional Conduct, represented lawyers in matters relating to legal ethics, prepared to testify as an expert witness and participated as a presenter at seminars on legal ethics. He has been a member of the CBA Committee on Professional Ethics since 1986 and currently serves as Chairman. He is a graduate of Yale College, '71 and Vermont Law School, '78, cum laude and practices with the New Haven firm of Winnick Ruben Chambers Hoffnung & Peabody, LLC.